

2012 Central District Symposium – Sumter County

Poster Winners

This year we decided to give awards based on the program area. We have one 1st place award winner for each category. The categories are Natural Resources, Agriculture, Family and Consumer Sciences, 4-H and Youth Development, Community Development, and Horticulture.

Natural Resources – “Educational Campaign Implementation: IPM Strategies for Hydrilla Management”
by Joan Bradshaw, J. Cuda, K. Gioeli, and Jennifer Gillett-Kaufman Agriculture – “Good Neighbor Practices: Increasing Communication between School Personnel and Neighboring Landowners” by Steven Lands, David Dinkins, Jennifer Gillett-Kaufman, and Faith Oi.

Family and Consumer Sciences – “The Process of Curriculum Development for Women and Money: Unique Issues” by D. Douglas, M. Gillen, and L. Spence

Community Development – “Using a Cash Mob as an Inexpensive Farmers Market Marketing Technique”
by Susan Kelly

4-H and Youth Development – “Teaching Workforce Development Skills through the 4-H Camp Counselor Training Program” by Karen Miliffe

Horticulture – “Developing a Master Gardener Program Risk Management Plan” by Norma Samuel