

Below are the 2017 Central District Symposium winners for abstracts and posters divided by category. We had 21 submissions overall.

Horticulture /FYN/ FFL

- Best Abstract: Kaydie McCormick ("Data Collection and Evaluation at Garden Festivals, Fairs, & Expos")
- Best Poster: Taryn Sudol, Brigete Alfonso, and Chelsea Woodard ("4-H Water Guards: New Club Saves Water")

Agriculture

- Best Abstract: Jessica Sullivan ("Supporting the Local Food System Through Farmers' Market Education")
- Best Poster: Bonnie Wells ("Digging into the Potential of Sweet Potato Production in the Tri-County Agricultural Area of Northeast Florida")

Family and Consumer Sciences

- Best Abstract: Scott Taylor ("A Partnership to Provide Financial Life Skills to Incarcerated Youth")
- Best Poster: Scott Taylor ("A Partnership to Provide Financial Life Skills to Incarcerated Youth")

4-H / Youth Development

- Best Abstract: Yilin Zhuang ("Exploring Water Education Curricula - Science Teachers Training")
- Best Poster: Bridgete Alfonso ("Healthy Living for the Whole Family: 4-H Food Smart Families")

Community Development

- Best Abstract: Megan Mann, Brooke Moffis, Juanita Popenoe, Lloyd Singleton, and Mia Wilchcombe ("Exploring Local Cuisine from the Roots Up: A Food Systems Extension Program in Lake County")
- Best Poster: Megan Mann, Brooke Moffis, Juanita Popenoe, Lloyd Singleton, and Mia Wilchcombe ("Exploring Local Cuisine from the Roots Up: A Food Systems Extension Program in Lake County")

Natural Resources

- Best Abstract: Brittany Hall-Scharf and William Lester ("Dr. Gullible and Operation Skeeter Stop")
- Best Poster: Brittany Hall-Scharf and William Lester ("Dr. Gullible and Operation Skeeter Stop")